Southern Rhode Island Conservation District hosts funding and technical assistance session

WESTERLY, Rhode Island, October 29, 2024 – The Southern Rhode Island Conservation District will be hosting a sign-up session to assist farmers, foresters and landowners in applying for Rhode Island’s LASA grant program which supports the agriculture, aquaculture, and forestry industries by investing in small and beginning farms. Conservation planners will also be available to provide technical assistance for NRCS programs including EQIP, CSP and other USDA programs.

The session will be held on Saturday, November 9 from 11 am – 1 pm at the Fresh Harvest Kitchen located in the plaza at 9 East Avenue in Westerly. To register, visit <https://www.sricd.org/register-for-our-lasa-grant-nrcs-funding-workshop>.

The Southern Rhode Island Conservation District (SRICD) promotes and achieves a healthy environment and sustainable use of natural resources for the people of Kent and Washington Counties and the State of Rhode Island, now and for the future, by coordinating partners to provide technical, educational and financial resources.
