Southern Rhode Island Conservation forestry walking tour in Richmond

RICHMOND, Rhode Island, October 31, 2024 – The Southern Rhode Island Conservation District will be hosting a free Forestry Walking Tour at Hillsdale Preserve forestry research site in Richmond, RI on November 16 from 10 am – 12 pm to learn about enhancing forest resilience and addressing climate-related challenges. The preserve is located at 47 Old Mountain Road in Richmond. Parking is available along long the side of rural Old Mountain Road at the entrance to forestry research site. This is a rain or shine event so participants should be prepared for weather and walking off trail on uneven terrain.

To register, visit <https://www.sricd.org/2024-11-16-register-for-the-forestry-walking-tour-at-hillsdale-preserve>.

The Southern Rhode Island Conservation District (SRICD) promotes and achieves a healthy environment and sustainable use of natural resources for the people of Kent and Washington Counties and the State of Rhode Island, now and for the future, by coordinating partners to provide technical, educational and financial resources.
